

Rules for JBO PeeWee Invitational

- 1. Lots and lots of grace and mercy.
- 2. No fouls.
- 3. The quizmaster will be allowed to point to the quizzer who is supposed to answer-in fact, it is encouraged!
- 4. The quizmaster is allowed to ask the quizzer to repeat what they said. (I don't know about your kids, but I've got a couple of whisperers!!!)
- 5. The quizmaster will have the discretion to void a question and re-read for both sides if there is too much confusion on an answer (i.e. more than one kid answers, someone begins to talk or help, or just general confusion).
- 6. Repeated words are OK on quotation question answers but not wrong words.
- 7. "In essence" is very, very broad and subject to a judges' ruling.
- 8. Automatic official time outs if tears appear at the table.
- 9. If a question is interrupted, it does NOT have to be finished if the answer given is correct. However, the QM should go back to the quizzer and encourage him to finish the question by reading to the interruption point again and helping the quizzer answer the question.
- 10. Yes! Quizouts at five correct and fizzouts at three incorrect
